

CIVIL ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2024-1

RE: Sealing of Records in Eviction RIGL § 34-18-60

Pursuant to RIGL 34-18-60, (effective January 1, 2024) certain eviction cases may be sealed. The below procedure should be utilized for all motions to seal. Any party who has a case resolved as of September 1, 2022 may seek relief under this order.

Motion to Seal no Objection

- The filing of a motion to seal where there is no objection shall be decided by judicial review.
- In cases resolved prior to September 1, 2022, if all parties are in agreement, parties may request permission to file such motion from the judge assigned to the civil calendar.
- Upon the motion being granted, the Court shall seal the case

Motion to Seal with an Objection

- The filing of a motion to seal where there is an objection to the motion, shall be scheduled for a hearing before a Judicial Officer with notice to all parties.

Entered as an Order of this Court on this 5th day of March 2024.
