An attorney who resigns or who has been subject to disciplinary action shall continue to update the attorney's registration information with the Court for five (5) years thereafter in order that the attorney can be located in the event complaints are made about the attorney's conduct while the attorney was engaged in practice in this State. Any attorney who has been subject to disciplinary action who seeks reinstatement shall proceed under Article III, Rule 16 (Reinstatement).

(g) An attorney in the practice of law in another jurisdiction and who is removed from the Master Roll for a period in excess of six (6) months shall, in addition to any other prerequisite contained in these rules before being returned to the Master Roll, first provide to this court a certificate from the appropriate disciplinary tribunal of the jurisdiction in which the attorney has been practicing law that (a) the attorney is a member in good standing of the bar in such jurisdiction, and (b) that no disciplinary action is pending against the attorney in the other jurisdiction.

The annual registration required by this section shall be submitted electronically through the electronic filing system of the Clerk's Office, when such systems are available. The annual registration statement shall be submitted by a lawyer who is licensed and in good standing to practice law in this state. The Clerk is authorized to waive the electronic filing requirement in a given year if filing electronically will cause undue hardship.

(2) The license of any nonprofit entity that fails to register on or before July first shall be revoked forthwith. A nonprofit entity whose license has been revoked may be reinstated within six (6) months upon the filing of the registration statement. A nonprofit entity whose license has been revoked for more than six (6) months must petition the court for reinstatement with an affidavit attesting that the entity and its attorneys remain in good standing.

(3) If a nonprofit entity notifies the Clerk, in writing, that it is no longer practicing law and is winding down the operations and final activities of the organization, no annual registration statement shall be required and the entity shall be moved to inactive status for a period not to exceed one (1) year. For the purposes of this Rule 2, trust accounts shall not include funds held by a lawyer as trustee under an inter vivos or testamentary trust, guardian, executor, receiver or similar fiduciary capacity. Trust accounts shall be maintained only in financial institutions approved by this Court or this Court's Disciplinary Board. Trust accounts, and the maintenance thereof, shall be subject to the following additional provisions.

This Court or Disciplinary Board shall establish rules governing approval and termination of approved status for financial institutions, and shall annually publish a list of approved financial institutions. No trust account shall be maintained in any financial institution which does not agree to make such reports. Any such agreement shall apply to all branches of the financial institution and shall not be cancelled except upon thirty (30) day's notice in writing to this Court or Disciplinary Board.

Such reports shall be made simultaneously with, and within the time provided by law for notice of dishonor, if any, to depositors. If an instrument presented against insufficient funds is honored, then the report shall be made within five (5) banking days of the date of presentation for payment against insufficient funds.

(d) Every lawyer or law firm practicing or admitted to practice in this state shall, as a condition thereof, release a participating financial institution from any cause of action resulting from a report provided to the Court or the Court's Disciplinary Board and be conclusively deemed to have consented to the reporting and production requirements by financial institutions mandated by this rule.

(i) Example: An attorney admitted to the Rhode Island Bar in November 2012 must complete the “Rhode Island Bridge the Gap” course on or before June 30, 2014.

(3) Date of attendance shall be filed with the MCLE Commission via the MCLE Portal.

(b) Filing and Records. On or before June 30 of the MCLE Reporting Year, each attorney shall file the date of attendance with the MCLE Commission via the MCLE Portal documenting compliance with this requirement. The responsibility to ensure the accuracy and timely submission of the data rests solely with the reporting attorney. Each attorney shall maintain such records as may be required to substantiate the attorney’s compliance for a period of three (3) years following the close of the MCLE Reporting Year.

(c) The Rhode Island Bar Association or an educational institution approved by the Supreme Court shall sponsor the “Rhode Island Bridge the Gap” course. The course shall be offered as a Video Replay as well as In-person. The fees for the course, whether In-person or on Video Replay, shall be set by the Supreme Court as deemed necessary.

(d) The MCLE Commission shall grant no exemptions or extensions unless exceptional circumstances apply. An Active Practitioner may file a waiver or makeup consideration with the MCLE Commission via the MCLE Portal fully explaining the exceptional circumstances that caused the need for a waiver or extension. The MCLE Commission shall review each request on an individual basis.

(e) As this course is mandatory for all newly admitted attorneys, no MCLE credits are given for this course.

(f) Failure to Comply. A newly admitted attorney who fails to comply with the requirements of Article IV, Rule 3.3 and this subsection by the end of the first full MCLE Reporting Year after the attorney is admitted to the Rhode Island Bar, shall be assessed a makeup filing fee and shall be removed from the Master Roll of Attorneys without further notice. An attorney whose name has been removed from the Master Roll of Attorneys and who practices law or holds out in any manner to the public or to another person as being competent, qualified, authorized, or entitled to practice law in this state is engaged in the unauthorized practice of law and may be subject to the disciplinary procedures of the Supreme Court.

(1) An attorney whose name has been removed from the Master Roll for failure to comply with Article IV, Rule 3.3 and this subsection may be reinstated upon completing the “Rhode Island Bridge the Gap” course and payment of the makeup or late filing fee, plus reimbursement of the costs of collection, if any, within six (6) months of the initial filing deadline (June 30). (See Appendix C, Schedule of Fees.) Reinstatement after having been removed from the Master Roll for a period of less than six (6) months may be completed via the MCLE Portal.

(2) An attorney whose name has been removed from the Master Roll for failure to comply with subsection (f)(1) for a period in excess of six (6) months shall file an application with the Supreme Court seeking reinstatement, in accordance with Article IV, Rule 1(e), and provide a copy to the Supreme Court’s Disciplinary Counsel and the MCLE Commission. The applicant for reinstatement shall submit an affidavit with the application attesting that the applicant has not been disciplined in this or any other jurisdiction, that the applicant is not the subject of any pending disciplinary charges, and the applicant is not aware of any reason why the application should not be granted. Disciplinary Counsel shall provide the Supreme Court with a Report and Recommendation on the application within thirty (30) days after receiving the application.

(3) An attorney in the practice of law in another jurisdiction who is removed from the Master Roll for failure to comply with Article IV, Rule 3.3 and MCLE Regulation § 1.3.3 shall, in addition to the prerequisites stated above, provide to the Supreme Court a certificate from the appropriate disciplinary tribunal of the jurisdiction in which the attorney has been practicing law that:

- (i) The attorney is a member in good standing of the bar in such jurisdiction; and
- (ii) That no disciplinary action is pending against the attorney in the other jurisdiction.

RULE 1.3.4 CREDITS AND COMPUTATION.

(a) MCLE credit(s) for Approved Program or Activity attendance will be awarded on the basis of one (1) credit hour for each fifty (50) minutes actually spent in attendance. One-half credit shall be awarded for:

(1) Approved Programs or Activities exceeding standard credit increments by at least twenty-five (25) minutes (e.g. seventy-five (75) minutes = 1½ credits): and

(2) Legal ethics presentations of at least twenty-five (25) minutes duration, whether stand-alone or included in a larger program.

Credits are calculated by rounding down to the nearest half credit (e.g. 1.8 credits will be awarded 1.5 credits). NO credit will be allowed for any program of less than twenty-five (25) minutes duration, regardless of the topic.

(b) The burden of proving MCLE credit entitlement for attendance at a course offered shall be on the Active Practitioner who, upon demand, must submit all registration and course materials concerning said program.

(c) MCLE credit will not be given for any course taken before admission to the Rhode Island Bar. Although newly admitted attorneys are exempted from reporting in the current and next full MCLE Reporting Year, the attorney may submit a maximum of ten (10) credits from the date of the attorney's admission to be applied towards the first MCLE Reporting Year.

(d) MCLE credit may be earned through enrollment in formal education of a postgraduate nature, either for credit or by audit, in an ABA accredited law school. The MCLE Commission will award one (1) MCLE Credit Hour for each fifty (50) minutes of class attendance. The course credit hours allotted by the law school shall not be a consideration.

(e) MCLE Credit Hours may be obtained for attendance at In-house programs that meet the requirements of MCLE Regulations §§ 1.3.4 and 1.3.7 and are approved by the MCLE Commission pursuant to MCLE Regulation § 1.3.5 (Appendix D, Course Accreditation).

(f) No more than five (5) MCLE Credit Hours may be earned by an Active Practitioner in any MCLE Reporting Year through MCLE In-house activities.

(g) MCLE credit may be earned for certain activities crossing academic lines (e.g., accounting-tax). (See Appendix A, Accreditation Guidelines for Continuing Legal Education, for criteria.)

(h) The MCLE Commission will award teaching credits, with an annual limitation of six (6) credit hours, to an Active Practitioner who teaches an Approved Program or Activity and submits an Appendix F on the MCLE Portal. Rules for course accreditation, standards, and teaching qualifications are provided herein in Appendix A, Accreditation Guidelines for Continuing legal Education Activities, MCLE Regulation § 1.3.7, Standards, and Appendix B, Teaching Qualifications, respectively.

(i) Presenters who serve as members of a discussion or similar panel shall receive teaching credit only if they have made a presentation which conforms to the requirement of Appendices A and B.

(j) The MCLE Commission may award credit for research activities upon application via the MCLE Portal by attorneys engaged in such activities, provided the activity:

- (1) Has produced published findings in the form of articles, chapters, monographs, or books personally authored in whole, or in part, by the applicant; and
- (2) Contributes substantially to the continuing legal education of the applicant and other attorneys.

Such credit(s) shall not exceed five (5) MCLE Credit Hours per MCLE Reporting Year. The MCLE Commission will, upon publication and submittal, judge applications on a case-by-case basis as to acceptability, and if so found, the number of credit hours allowed. (Appendix E, Authorship Credit, via the MCLE Portal.)

(k) Provider shall issue proof of attendance to each attendee only at the conclusion of a seminar. The MCLE Commission recommends a sign-in/sign-out procedure and implementation of such a procedure shall afford the provider a “safe haven” should any problems concerning attendance arise.

(l) A maximum of six (6) credits per MCLE Reporting Year may be earned for Video Replay courses (see Appendix D).

(m) If an Active Practitioner earns more than ten (10) MCLE Credit Hours in a MCLE Reporting Year, the excess hours may be used to fulfill, as far as possible, the Active Practitioner’s MCLE requirement for the next ensuing year, but not thereafter. Excess credits must be reported in the year taken.

(n) An Active Practitioner who principally practices in any MCLE jurisdiction other than Rhode Island, who is deemed in compliance with that other jurisdiction’s MCLE requirement for the MCLE Reporting Year, shall be deemed in compliance with Rhode Island only if the MCLE Commission receives, by June 30 of the MCLE Reporting Year, an official transcript or certification from the other jurisdiction accompanied by the filing form prescribed by the MCLE Commission and filed by the practitioner via the MCLE Portal.

(o) No more than one (1) MCLE credit will be granted for acting as a judge, facilitator, or trainer in a moot or mock trial competition or seminar per MCLE Reporting Year. Such credit will only be granted if student critiquing is part of the Active Practitioner's contribution to the competition.

RULE 1.3.5 ACCREDITED SPONSOR APPROVAL.

(a) In order to obtain and maintain accreditation, sponsors of MCLE courses or activities must comply with the following minimum requirements via the MCLE Portal:

(1) The sponsor must develop and implement methods to evaluate the sponsor's course offerings to determine their effectiveness and, upon request from the MCLE Commission, provide course evaluations by attendees; and

(2) The sponsor must provide courses consistent with the Standards for individual course approval as set forth in Article IV, Rule 3.7 and MCLE Regulation § 1.3.7.

(b) A law firm, corporate legal department, or government agency may apply to the MCLE Commission via the MCLE Portal for approval of credit for an In-house course or activity. In addition to the Standards set forth in Article IV, Rule 3.7 and MCLE Regulation § 1.3.7, a minimum of seven (7) lawyers, including the instructor, must attend the course or activity for the course or activity to qualify for MCLE credit, and the In-house MCLE activity shall meet the following minimum requirements:

(1) The course must be open to in-person monitoring/observation by any member of the MCLE Commission; and

(2) The activity must be scheduled at a time and location so as to be free of interruptions from telephone calls and other office activity.

(c) The MCLE Commission may, at its discretion, require an Accredited Sponsor to submit a report in writing of continuing legal education activities conducted during any given MCLE Reporting Year.

(d) If the MCLE Commission determines that an individual course offered by an Accredited Sponsor fails to meet the Standards for accreditation, the Commission may deny approval for the course even though offered by an Accredited Sponsor (Appendix D).

(e) The MCLE Commission may at any time reevaluate and, for cause, revoke the status of an Accredited Sponsor including, but not limited to, failure to comply with MCLE Regulation § 1.3.8(e).

(f) There are three (3) types of fees associated with Accredited Sponsor status. First, the Accredited Sponsor offering more than two (2) credits per MCLE Reporting Year shall pay an annual accreditation fee plus an application fee per course. In the remaining two (2) types, the Accredited Sponsor shall pay a limited annual accreditation fee based upon the number of credits (one (1) or two (2) credits) for the Approved Program or Activity within the MCLE Reporting Year. (See Appendix C, Schedule of Fees.)

(g) A sponsor wishing to apply for Accredited Sponsor status shall submit to the MCLE Commission via the MCLE Portal, information on any continuing legal education programs planned for the current application year. The MCLE Commission may, at its discretion, request submission of course materials for inspection (Appendix D).

(h) Sponsors of courses which have been accredited or approved may announce in informational brochures or registration materials: “Subject to Article IV, Rule 3 of the Rhode Island Supreme Court Rules, this course has been approved by the Mandatory Continuing Legal Education Commission for a maximum of _____ CLE credits, inclusive of _____ legal ethics credits.”

(i) At the conclusion of an Approved Program or Activity, each participating attorney should be given the opportunity to complete an evaluation form addressing the quality, effectiveness, and usefulness of the program or activity.

(j) Accredited Sponsors shall allow MCLE Commission members and staff to attend, free of charge, any continuing legal education program. Such attendance shall not qualify for MCLE.

(k) In case of In-person, Webcast/Webinar, and Teleseminar courses, a qualified person must be in attendance and shall be the one who, by academic or professional qualifications, possesses the knowledge to interact with the audience to supplement the presentation and answer questions. Commentary and question-and-answer segments should occur at a meaningful time during the program, preferably after each subject matter break.

(l) For Webcast/Webinar, Teleseminar, and Video Replay courses, attendance prompts are required.

Rule 1.3.6. INDIVIDUAL COURSE APPROVAL.

An individual attorney may apply to the MCLE Commission via the MCLE Portal for approval for credit of a continuing legal education course or activity in such manner as set forth in Article IV, Rule 3.7 and MCLE Regulation § 1.3.7. (As added by the court on July 1, 2012; amended July 1, 2018.)

Rule 1.3.7. STANDARDS.

(a) A continuing legal education course, program, or activity shall meet the following minimum standards in order to be approved for MCLE credit:

(1) Be of significant intellectual and practical content such that the course, program, or activity will contribute to the growth of an attorney's professional competence and skills;

(2) The subject matter shall be directly or supportively relevant to the practice of law and/or legal ethics (Appendix A);

(3) Be conducted by a person or persons qualified professionally to present the subject matter involved;

(4) Be presented in a classroom, meeting room, or lecture hall conducive to a meaningful educational experience;

(6) Video and audio presentations may be utilized in addition to oral and written presentations.

Rule 1.3.8. FILING AND RECORDS.

(b) In cases where a program sponsor either failed to supply certification, the same was supplied or lost, or certification was not available (e.g. scholarly writing), the Active Practitioner shall certify the Active Practitioner's attendance in Appendices D and G via the MCLE Portal.

(c) Each Active Practitioner must report the status of the Active Practitioner's compliance, waiver, or exemption annually not later than June 30 of each MCLE Reporting Year (Appendix G via the MCLE Portal).

(d) Any documentation received by the Director after July 15 (Tier I), October 1 (Tier II), or after January 1 (Tier III) for the prior MCLE Reporting Year will subject the Active Practitioner to a progressive makeup or late filing fee (Appendix C, Schedule of Fees). (e) As set forth in Article IV, Rule 3.5(c)(3), any Accredited Sponsor must apply for course approval thirty (30) days prior to the course date as well as report attorney attendance no later than thirty (30) days after the course date via the MCLE Portal. Attorney attendance received by the MCLE Commission from the Accredited Sponsor after thirty (30) days from the date of the course will be subject to a late fee. (See Post 30-Day Accredited Sponsor Late Fee in Appendix C.)

(f) As soon as practical after the close of a MCLE Reporting Year, the Director shall send a notice of delinquency to any Active Practitioner who fails to submit satisfactory proof of either compliance or exemption. The Active Practitioner's failure to receive such notice does not constitute a waiver of noncompliance, and the burden of curing any noncompliance remains with the Active Practitioner at all times.

(g) Each Active Practitioner shall maintain a personal record of MCLE attendance or exemption from the MCLE Reporting Year for a period of three (3) years. Such records will be subject to review by the MCLE Commission upon request.

(h) The Active Practitioner may review the Active Practitioner's continuing legal education record via the MCLE Portal. The responsibility to ensure the accuracy and timely submission of the data rests solely with the reporting attorney.

Rule 1.3.9. FAILURE TO COMPLY – SANCTIONS.

(a) An Active Practitioner who fails to fulfill the educational requirements of MCLE shall correct the Active Practitioner's failure to comply with the requirements of this rule within ninety (90) days (Tier I) of the date of the notice of delinquency, or be subject to possible sanctions by the Supreme Court. A fee will be assessed for makeup filing or for late filing (see Appendix C, Schedule of Fees).

(c) If an Active Practitioner does not correct the Active Practitioner's failure to comply with the requirements of MCLE within one hundred eighty (180) days of the date of the notice of delinquency (Tier III), the Active Practitioner shall be removed from the Master Roll of Attorneys without further notice.

(1) An Active Practitioner whose name has been removed from the Master Roll for failure to comply with MCLE may be reinstated, upon completing and filing the courses, payment of the makeup or late filing fee, filing certification of proof with the MCLE Commission via the MCLE Portal, and payment of a reinstatement fee within six (6) months of the removal date.

(2) An Active Practitioner whose name has been removed from the Master Roll for failure to comply with this rule for a period in excess of six (6) months shall file an application with the Supreme Court seeking reinstatement, in accordance with Article IV, Rule 1(e), and provide a copy to the Supreme Court's Disciplinary Counsel and the MCLE Commission. The applicant for reinstatement shall submit an affidavit with the application attesting that the applicant has not been disciplined in this or any other jurisdiction, that the applicant is not the subject of any pending disciplinary charges, and that the applicant is not aware of any reason why the application should not be granted. Disciplinary Counsel shall provide the Supreme Court with a Report and Recommendation on the application within thirty (30) days.

(d) An Active Practitioner engaged in the practice of law in another jurisdiction who is removed from the Master Roll for failure to comply with this Regulation shall, in addition to the prerequisites contained in these Regulations, provide to the Supreme Court a certificate from the appropriate disciplinary tribunal of the jurisdiction in which the attorney has been practicing law that:

(c) Accredited Sponsors including In-house qualifiers, who offer not more than two (2) credit hours in any MCLE Reporting Year, shall pay a separate fee for the first and the second offering. (Appendix C). In-house programs may exceed the two (2) credit limit without further Accredited Sponsor fees.

(d) In the case of “NO FEE” programs presented on a not-for-profit basis, neither the provider nor the attendee shall be liable for the application fee charge provided herein.

(e) The MCLE Commission shall review and revise the Schedule of Fees (Appendix C) as it deems necessary.

Subject to the direction of the Supreme Court, the files, records, and proceedings of the MCLE Commission, as they may relate to or arise out of the failure of an attorney to satisfy these continuing legal education requirements, shall be confidential. When the Director issues a notice of delinquency that an Active Practitioner is not in compliance with the filing or educational requirements set forth in these rules, the MCLE record of that attorney shall be open to public inspection during the time that the attorney is noncompliant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, MCLE Commission work product and attorney requests for waivers shall not be subject to public inspection.
